We MUST End War

"We must try by our work and our labor in this generation to prevent war in the next generation. A great war does not come overnight. Those responsible for the war of the future may be living now. . . America is not given to the shedding of blood except in very rare and extraordinary circumstances. Would to God today that America would get such a horror of blood that she would take no part in war in the future."—Cardinal HAYES, St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City.

We CAN End War

"We have long advocated the peaceful settlement of disputes by methods of arbitration." — CALVIN COOLIDGE (Inaugural Address).

"Local and national faith must be extended to international faith."—CALVIN COOLIDGE (June 2, 1925).

We Can End War NOW

"The American people can end war in our time if they get on the job. . . I should be a traitor to my country if I did not do everything in my power to abolish war."—Major-General JOHN F. O'RYAN.

HOW?

"Let us arouse, organize, and direct the public opinion of the world for peace. No nation can long stand out for armaments and war against the sustained and well-directed power of public opinion. Let the people who must suffer and sacrifice and die when war comes, take into their own hands the question of peace or war."—Senator WILLIAM E. BORAH.

"The signing of the Multilateral Treaty . . . promises to prove so epoch-making in the moral and spiritual life of mankind as to call for the widest and most grateful recognition by all the religious forces of the world."—Rev. S. PARKES CADMAN, D.D.
