To Theodore Roosevelt
President of the United States of America

Collection Suttner-Fried

Mr. President

The world's peace is near to come but only step by step. These were the words you said to me on the 25th of Sept. 1904 when you so kindly received me in the White House. Of those to steps in the advance of humanity's greater