Hannover, Nov. 1905.

Mr. President,

Because the entirety of these lies, I am travelling through

Germany now on a [illegible] tour lecture and gather the impression that a war between this country and England is generally expected.

Certainly your great influence could arrest such a calamity from the world,

It is not on my course.
received by him, could you not write to him?"

Will, I have done so now, and know that you will pardon me.

Yours in deep respect,

Bertha M. Sutter
